Waiting For Your Return

A brilliant life cut short
A family left in pain
A day that's filled with sunshine
one that should be filled with rain ...
A quiet community shattered by this big crime of late wondering why it happened and why it was your fate ...
Friends leaving notes and cards of love
on the place you were found Containing memories,
and wishes that you were around.
The street was decorated with names and a flag
that people stopped to read People that knew you slowly begin to grieve.
And around every corner
And at every turn,
People stand waiting for your return.

By Migdalia Ortiz

Juan Baez has been a good friend,
He was like a brother to me.
It's a relationship that will never end,
Because I'll treasure it deep inside by heart.

We grew up together for 7 years.
I always described you as the biggest flirt
Together we shared happy and sad tears
He would never let me get hurt.

Juan you will always be in my heart,
Although you are not here.
We will never be apart.
Because of all the good times we shared.

I can remember that smile
You always had on your face.
It cheered everyone up
whenever we were feeling low.

Because your smile was always full of grace.
Even when you were feeling low.

I guess it was your time to go.
With that beautiful smile I won't ever forget.
My love for you will always grow
And that is something I will never ever regret.

We will never forget your friendliness and your flirtiness Good people like you are always remembered.

I know you'll be back sometime in the daylight and the darkness
And I will see your beautiful smile as together we are gathered.

God be with you
and may your rest in peace

Our Last Day

Our last day is drawing near,
the final day of our senior year.
A time to laugh, a time to cry,
but never time to say good-bye.
It seems like only yesterday
when we went out on our first date.
Do you remember when our parents
said we were late?
The very next day friends were all curious,
to see if our parents were furious?
Our friends were always there
to get us through the day, and somehow they always knew
the right thing to say.
Now the day has come,
the day is finally here.
We always said "I can't wait"
but now we're all in tears,
because we want just one more year
to tell our friends, good-bye.
It could be awhile before we see them again
and we can't help but cry.
We're not completely sure of What to do or say,
but if we had a wish We'd wish for another day.

"Dear Teenagers"

Your world is changing faster now
your choices are unfolding
The future lies within your grasps
A vital force worth molding.

Your role is not a simple one your course has not been set
You must avoid the obstacles,
Steer clear of every threat.

The pressures come from all around — example good and bad
Be richer through the friends you choose,
The peers who strengthen add.

Accept responsibility Deserve your parents trust
let go of your Independence —
Temper freedom's forward thrust.

Don't ever lose control
and let the others steer your course
Your life is a gift for you to shape with independent force.

Reach High: purpose your talents,
make the most of your potential
Remember as your goals take form
Your dreams become essential.

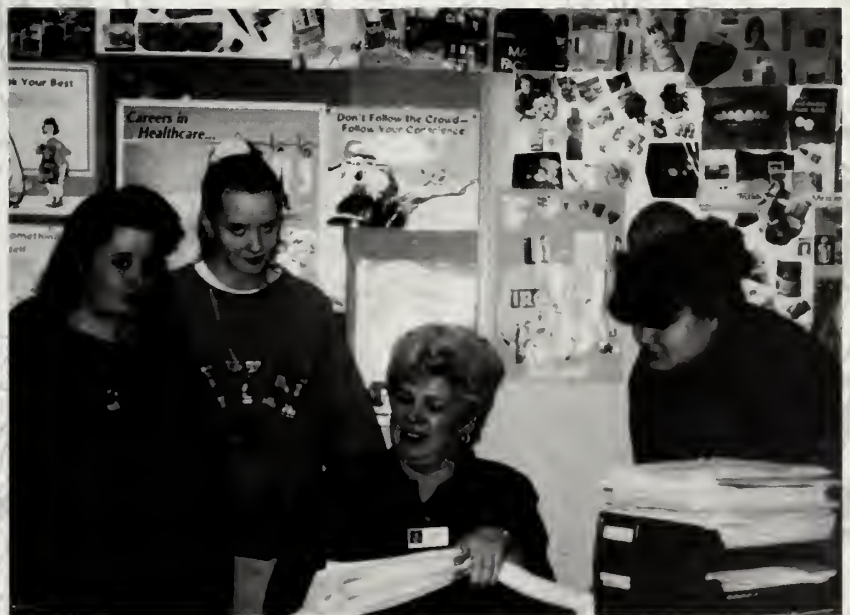

You may see all the answers
Be content to find a few,
Don't grow impatient with the world
Tomorrow's world is you.

FACULTY AND STAFF

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the graduates of the Class of 1996. Suddenly the routine, the bus rides, the early mornings are over. You are about to become involved with a new life, hopefully, a life full of personal discovery and career fulfillment your education and carefully develop skills will help to create.

Remember, as you pursue your personal and professional goals, that failure or success will now largely depend upon you. Your teachers, guidance counselors, coaches, and advisors, will no longer be there to provide these moments of encouragement and understanding that were needed from time to time. Whatever course your future takes, it is my sincere hope that you will look back at your years at Greater Lowell as having prepared you to meet and deal with the challenges that life will present.

In closing, I wish you success and happiness in all your future endeavors.

Once again I have to say thank - you and good - bye to some special graduates who made this yearbook a reality. I will never forget all that Stacy Guerin did to organize some of the most difficult photos in this book. You've come a long way, keep up the good work. My typists Adriana Santos and my life saver Migdalia Ortiz, without them I would have a lot of broken nails. The Graphic students who designed the cover, Richard Martin and the game board Joe Martin, what a great job!! Congratulations!! And the rest of my staff, especially Melissa Santiago, Ineabelle Dominguez, Sandra Santos and my top sales people, Leona Crockett, Justine Culpepper and Amy Dupont.

Special thanks also to staff members: John Kent, Tom Adie, Fred Sheehey, Dave Saul, Elaine Holland, Mary Lappin, Martha Nawn, and the rest of you, thanks once again.

Good Luck to the Class of '96 and best wishes for much success in the future!

Jan Megdanis
